Report of
One Day Hands on Training Programme
on

'Preparation of Eco-friendly Herbal Abir'

Organized by
Dept of Botany, Sonamukhi College, Sonamukhi, Bankura, WB, India
(Affiliated to Bankura University)
In
Coordination with Eco-club and ICC (Vishakha Cell)

Introduction: At present festival of colours or holi as well as different rituals are celebrated with the use of different colours and chemicals available at the market. All these bright and attractive items contain high concentration of different heavy metals like chromium, silica, lead, cadmium, alkaline chemicals etc. All these chemicals are not only harmful to the health but also toxic to the all other organism and environment. It can damage the skin, causing depletion of moisture and sun tan, leaving skin dry and dull. The water colours used in Holi fare not better. The gentian violet dye used as a colourant is a hazardous chemical that can irritate the skin as well. These colours are actually industrial chemicals — black (lead oxide), green (copper sulfate and malachite green), silver (aluminum bromide), blue (Prussian blue, cobalt nitrate, indigo, and zinc salts), and red (mercury sulfate).

Objective: Keeping in mind the drawbacks of all these commonly used colorful abir, we, the department of botany in collaboration of Eco-club and ICC (Bisakha cell) of this college planed for hands on training programme to motivate Self Help Group (SHE) and students to prepare Eco-friendly herbal abir. The organic colors from Green Practices are completely safe and come with a natural fragrance. Raw materials are talcum and Arrowroot powder; colours from nature like leaves flowers, seeds, rhizomes etc. All these are everywhere easily available. More over women's of self-help group can get the way to earn money from it and can motivate others to engage for this work. At the same time this green practice will save our nature.

Subject: Permission Letter for Conducting Orientation/Awareness Programme

Respected Sir/Madam,

We are glad to inform you that our college is going to organize an Orientation/Awareness programme in neighbour schools of Sonamukhi on the following topics as we informed you earlier over the telephone. The programme will be held on 29.03.2023 from 1.00 p.m. The topics are-

1. An Orientation Programme on
Online Admission & New Education Policy 2020

And

2. An Awareness Programme on Job Prospects of Social Work (BSW), Economics & Commerce

The purpose is to make the students aware about online admission procedure, New Education Policy 2020 which is going to be introduced from the coming session, job opportunities of newly introduced subject (BSW) in our college and some other valuable subjects (Economics and Commerce) in which admission is less due to low awareness regarding prospects of these subjects.

We sincerely hope that the programme will enrich the higher secondary level students of your school.

We are eagerly waiting for your positive response.

With thanks,

Regards,
