Reservation Rule for Admission 2026-27

This is hereby notified for information of all concerned that the reservation policy for admission to different Undergraduate Courses for the academic session 2026-27 at Sonamukhi College shall be followed strictly as per the latest orders, notifications and guidelines issued by the Department of Higher Education, Government of West Bengal, and other competent authorities from time to time.

Accordingly, if any modification in the reservation structure, category-wise seat distribution or related admission rules is made by the Government/competent authority, the same shall automatically be applicable and implemented in the admission process of the college.

Since the admission process is being conducted centrally through the Government admission portal wbcap.in, the applicants will be able to see the final and actual category-wise intake capacity/seat matrix of the respective courses in the portal during the application process. The intake capacity displayed in the centralized admission portal shall be treated as final for the purpose of admission.

Therefore, all applicants are advised to follow the seat matrix in the centralized admission portal as well as on the 'Sonamukhi College Admission Brochure' available in the college website.
